Terry Murray - Head Coach

NHL veteran coach Terry Murray begins his first season as head coach of the Adirondack Phantoms in 2012-13. Murray has coached 1,012 NHL games with Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Washington and Florida posting a career record of 499-383-89-41 for a points percentage of .557. Murray is 19th all-time in NHL history in regular season games coached and is 18th all-time in total wins. He also has the most NHL coaching experience of any AHL head coach in the league's 76-year history.

"We feel very fortunate to be able to bring Terry back to the Flyers organization as head coach of the Phantoms," Flyers general manager Paul Holmgren said. "Terry brings a wealth of knowledge and experience, is an excellent teacher and a strong believer in the development process of young players."

"I really appreciate the opportunity to come back to the Flyers organization and I'm really looking forward to the challenge that's out there of coaching the Phantoms," Murray said. "I'm a hockey coach, I love to coach. When Paul presented it to me, in the way that he did - coming back to the Flyers in particular was very exciting, and I feel like it's a great opportunity to work with young players and again, it's just a wonderful challenge and I'm looking forward to it."

Murray, 61, returns to the Flyers organization for his third tour of duty as a coach. He most recently worked in the Los Angeles Kings organization, where he was the head coach from the start of the 2008-09 season through December 2011. Prior to joining the Kings, Murray was a Flyers assistant coach for four seasons from 2003-2008, working first under Ken Hitchcock and later under John Stevens.

He was the head coach of the Flyers for three seasons from 1994 through 1997, leading the Flyers to the 1997 Stanley Cup Final. He posted a record of 118-64-30 in 212 games behind the bench in Philadelphia.

In addition to his time with the Kings and Flyers, Murray has also served as the head coach of the Florida Panthers (1998-2001) and the Washington Capitals (1989-1994).

Murray began his coaching career in 1983 as an assistant with the Capitals. After five seasons in that role, he earned his first head coaching job with Washington's American Hockey League affiliate, the Baltimore Skipjacks. He coached the club for 125 games over parts of two seasons from 1988-1990 before being promoted to the Capitals head job halfway through the 1989-90 season.

As a player, Murray appeared in 302 NHL games over parts of eight seasons from 1972 to 1982. He played 115 games for the Flyers and also saw action with the California Golden Seals, Detroit Red Wings, and the Washington Capitals. He also recorded 196 points in 363 AHL games during his playing career. Most of his AHL playing time was spent in the Flyers organization with their affiliates in Richmond (1975-76) and Maine (1977-80).

Terry Murray is the younger brother of Bryan Murray who is the general manager of the Ottawa Senators. Bryan operated the player development and served as general manager of the Adirondack Red Wings in the early 1990's when he was also the general manager and head coach for the Detroit Red Wings.

Riley Cote - Assistant Coach

Riley Cote enters his third season as Assistant Coach for the Adirondack Phantoms as he supports Terry Murray during the 2012-13 season. This is Cote's ninth season in the Flyers organization.

Cote, 30, spent six seasons with the Flyers and Phantoms as a player. Known for his toughness and fighting prowess, Cote played in 156 games in the NHL, all with Philadelphia. He amassed 411 penalty minutes as an undersized fighter as he consistently stepped up to some of the top heavyweights in the NHL. He also scored one goal and six assists for the Flyers.

A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Cote signed an AHL contract with the Philadelphia Phantoms prior to the 2004-05 season and helped the team to a Calder Cup championship. He signed an NHL contract with the Flyers for the 2005-06 season but spent most of the next two years with the Phantoms before eventually making his NHL debut against the New York Islanders on March 24, 2007. Cote earned a full-time roster spot with the Flyers out of training camp prior to the 2007-08 season.

In his three seasons as a player with the Phantoms from 2004-2007, Cote finished fourth in franchise history with 664 penalty minutes in 168 games. He scored eight career goals and 12 assists for the Phantoms.

Following the 2009-10 season with Philadelphia, Cote was invited by the Flyers organization to join the Adirondack Phantoms as an assistant coach and he has thrived in his new role helping the up and coming prospects develop into NHL players.

Mike Pacitti - Video Coach

Mike Pacitti is beginning his tenth season as the Video Coach for the Phantoms. He graduated from Neuman College in 2002 with a Sports Management Degree. Pacitti was a four-year member of the Neuman Knights hockey team that won back-to-back National Championships and was appointed as the team's Captain for two of those seasons.

Originally from Glen Mills, Pennsylvania, "Pac" enjoys golf as well as watching football and baseball and is an avid fan of the Eagles and Phillies.

Greg Lowden - Head Athletic trainer

Jeff Shockley - Strength & Conditioning Coach

Damion Parmalee - Equipment Manager

Damion Parmalee is entering his seventh season as Head Equipment Manager for the Phantoms. Prior to joining the Phantoms, Parmalee was the Head Equipment Manager for the ECHL's Alaska Aces from 2003-2006 who won the ECHL's Kelly Cup Championship in 2006. "Parms" was the Head Equipment Manager for the Pee Dee Pride (ECHL) in South Carolina from 2000-2003 and served as the assistant Equipment Manager for the Albany River Rats during the 1999-2000 season.

Parmalee is originally from Binghamton, New York and enjoys playing golf and men's league hockey.
